PREFACE.

In order to complete the earlier portion of the Registers of Bitton it is necessary to include the Chapelries of Hanham and Oldland, which lie within that parish.

A transcript of the first volume was made some years ago by P. Carlyon-Britton, Esq., and recently, with the approval of Canon Ellacombe, Vicar of Bitton, it was placed in the hands of the Parish Register Society for the purpose of being printed.

In order to insure as correct a copy as is possible under the circumstances, and to enable many entries to be deciphered which were much faded and worn by the constant turning over of the pages, the Register of the two Chapelries was called over word for word, and it is believed that all the entries capable of being restored have been inserted in the printed volume now issued. As will be seen, however, there are many entries completely lost by the leaves having been torn away.

The Register begins in 1584 and runs continuously to 1696. Towards the end of the volume the years have got somewhat mixed up, but it is generally pretty clear what year is intended.

The whole is written on 96 pages of parchment and 6 pages of paper. The writing and spelling leave much to be desired.

The following Introduction appears in the Register itself.

INTRODUCTION.

This Book was bound in the year 1824 when the Revd. H. T. Ellicombe was the Curate. Aaron Cole & Hy. Pedlingham were the Churchwardens.

Counting the original Parchment covers which are bound up with it, it consists of Forty eight leaves or ninety six pages of Parchment; & three leaves or six pages of paper. It contains an account of Xtenings, Marriages, and Burials entered promiscuously from 1586 [altered to 1572] to 1604. After this date the several services are entered separately till 1610, after which time Xtenings and Weddings are entered as they occurred all thro' the troublesome times of Cromwell's usurpation to the year 1696. The whole badly written. From 1604 to 1610 Burials are recorded separately on four pages, one of which is torn, and the whole are scored thus X. At the bottom of the page, viz., anno 1610, is this, "Yf anie one doth find himselfe greived for that these Burialls are here erasht: let them goe to Bitton and there they shall have it registered."

After

[End of page.]

After that I can find but one burial recorded, viz., in July 1630. It does not appear where these burials took place, whether at the Chapels or the Church. But upon examination & by the existence of a Register of this same Date belonging to the Mother Church, it is fair to conclude that the Weddings & Xtenings herein recorded, took place at the Chapels: indeed it is so stated, viz., in 1603.

At the beginning two leaves are ragged, also about 1664 the corner of a leaf torn off. This Register ends 25th May 1696. Afterwards another parchment leaf exists for the year 1665/6. Then follow Six leaves of Paper, containing a Record of Burials from August 1677 to March 1681/2. (This is a continuation of the Church Register) and then the parchment cover of the original Book.

Witness my hand this eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred & twenty-five.

H. T. ELLICOMBE,

Curate.

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops' Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

The Midland Educational Company, Ltd., Corporation St., Birmingham.

Price 5s. Nett Post Free.
